In a document dated 15 March 2004, the following events were noted:

052 had been using pieces of toilet paper to form a design on his bunk. The toilet paper was removed and 052 was told he would receive it upon request. However, 052, in protest, began to wipe himself after defecating with his left hand, then accuse the guards of not providing him toilet paper when he requested it.

At the end of the session, 052 was left by himself in the interview booth for two hours. During that time, he prayed and looked at his kid's pictures. When departing, he asked the guards if he could say something to the pictures. The guards granted his request and 052 said something in Arabic. When asked what he said, 052 claimed he said "see you in heaven". With that statement, 052 is now on modified Suicide Watch—which is being check every 15 minutes, 24/7. If skin is not visible at night, the lights to his cell are turned on.
